

Robert P. Davis, Architect
revised 1 April 1997

Opened with great fanfare in 1929 this synagogue is now a church. The local Jewish community evaporated years ago. (more to come)

