

Visit Jewish Toronto!

September 12-15, 2019

TJHS will visit Toronto, learn its Jewish history and see other fascinating sites. Save the date!

- ✓ Dairy Lunch at United Bakers, a Toronto tradition since 1912
- ✓ Walking tour of Jewish Toronto
- ✓ Historic Pape Cemetery, established 1849
- ✓ Sunday brunch at Free Times Cafe, for over 35 years, a food and cultural institution.

“Bella! Did ya eat?”

- ✓ Visit Holy Blossom Temple, founded 1856. W. Gunther Plaut was the long-time rabbi

- ✓ Royal Ontario Museum, largest museum in Canada opened 1914

- ✓ Second City Toronto (optional)
Improv & sketch comedy theatre & bar with nightly shows that's launched many famous comedians.

- ✓ Toronto Blue Jays (optional)
v. Boston Red Sox

Contact Vickie Vogel FMI
vvogel@cvctx.com 979.966.2493

Free time to visit famous locations such as the Hockey Hall of Fame, the Art Gallery of Toronto, the Distillery District, galleries, historic sites and more!

Registration fee (TBD) covers admission to included events, one lunch and one brunch. Tour begins in Toronto. A centrally located hotel for you to book. This tour is organized like a TJHS weekend - you pay your transportation and hotel, and some activities are included with your registration.