SJHS Grants & Applications

The SJHS Grants Committee is now accepting applications for the current year (2019 cycle) for the following grants:

1. The Project Completion Grant is intended to facilitate the completion of projects relevant to Southern Jewish history. Grants may not be used to fund research or travel, but are intended to cover production or completion expenses such as the editing or indexing of a publication, costs related to illustrations or photo permissions, the production of a media project, or the fabrication of exhibits.

2. The Research/Travel Grant assists scholars and independent researchers with travel and other expenses related to conducting research in Southern Jewish history. Graduate students completing doctoral dissertations are particularly encouraged to apply.

3. The Scott and Donna Langston Archival Grant supports projects aiming to preserve archival materials related to Southern Jewish history.

Proposals should indicate which grant is being applied for, and also include the following:

- The submitter's name, address, phone number, email, and affiliation.
- A brief abstract of the project, including its relevance to Southern Jewish history; a discussion of its goals and the questions or problems it intends to address; information about its format, content, and schedule for completion; and, where relevant, plans for its dissemination.
- Resumes or CVs of key individuals involved in the project, indicating the experience or training that suits them to carry out the project successfully.
- If the project is related to a publication, exhibit, or media production, please include a letter of endorsement from the publisher, producer, or sponsoring museum or organization and a sample of the work that gives the committee a sense of what the final product will look like.
- If the project is related to the preservation or processing of an archival collection, please provide a letter of endorsement from the repository where the collection will be housed.
- A detailed budget itemizing each expense for which support is requested. If the funds requested are to support a piece of a larger project, please provide information on the total budget as well as on the piece for which support is requested. Budgets should also indicate what funds you have requested and/or received from other sources.

The deadline for applications to all grant programs is August 1, 2019 (note: the deadline has been extended from the previously announced date of July 1). Please send the application materials as a Word document or PDF as an email attachment to the chair of the grants committee, Eric L. Goldstein, at egoldst@emory.edu (<mailto:egoldst@emory.edu>) with "SJHS Grant Application" and your last name in the subject field.

Grant Committee Members

The SJHS Grant Committee will evaluate each proposal based on its relevance to the goal of the Society, its scholarly merits, its significance and educational impact, and the likelihood of its successful completion. The committee is composed of:

- Dr. Phyllis K. Leffler (University of Virginia Emerita, Charlottesville, VA)
- Ms. Hollace Weiner (Author, Ft. Worth, TX)
- Dr. Marni Davis (Georgia State University, Atlanta, GA)
- Dr. Peggy K. Pearlstein (Retired Head of Hebraic Section, Library of Congress, Washington, DC)
- Dr. Eric L. Goldstein (Emory University, Atlanta, GA), chair

Awards will be presented at the Society's annual fall conference, with recipients being notified in advance. Application materials will not be returned unless a self-addressed, stamped envelope is included. Recipients must acknowledge SJHS support by presenting an appropriate representation of their projects to the SJHS president, and they may be invited to showcase their projects at the following annual conference.
